Machinists Strike Missile Test Base

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—Machinists Monday struck key bases that test intercontinental Atlas missiles and would fire them in case of war.

The walkout by the International Assn. of Machinists against Convair Division of General Dynamics Corp. took on the look of guerrilla warfare, in the view of a union spokesman. He said IAM strategy calls for "quickie strikes of key workers to hamper production without causing a mass strike."

At a stop work meeting Monday in San Diego, 25,000 plant workers voted to return to work and have the actual striking done by technicians at critical missile bases across the country where Convair has facilities. The plant workers—who make the Atlas—also voted a strike fund for the technicians called out.

A Convair spokesman said 1,600 did not report for work at five bases. He said the main union request seems to be a union shop, not money. The company had turned down such IAM requests during earlier negotiations, and a Convair statement renewed the firm's opposition.

It was the first major work stoppage in troubled labor negotiations in the aircraft-missile industry. Other strikes could follow that would tie up a majority of the industry's plants.

Picket lines went up outside Convair facilities coast to coast, including:

The Atlantic Missile Range at Cape Canaveral, Fla., where missiles and launch-detection satellites are test-fired and improved.

Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., site of the only combat-ready Atlas launch pads.

Warren AFB, Wyo., and Offutt AFB, Neb., where Atlas launch sites are nearing completion.

Holloman AFB, N.M., where local isues are involved.

A spokesman at Vandenberg said the strike would not affect the West Coast base's ability to launch combat missiles, because its operational pads are manned by service men. But industry observers pointed out that prolonged picketing could keep sympathetic union workers from serving and maintaining missiles and launching facilities.

At Cape Canaveral, the Air Force said approximately 1,500 of 1,900 IAM members are idle because of the strike. This number includes employes of Convair, Boeing, Lockheed, Douglas and Air Products—all of which reported absenteeism ranging from 25 to 100 per cent among IAM personnel.

The strike is aimed primarily at Convair, but employes of other companies are respecting the picket lines at all the missile bases.

At the Cape, the Air Force said many building tradesmen honored IAM picket lines and as a result, work slowed on construction for Saturn and Centaur space-rocket launch facilities and on launch pads being built for the solid-fuel Minuteman ICBM.

No launchings have been delayed, however, and none are likely to be unless the strike continues for several days.

An IAM spokesman at Vandenberg said pickets and sympathizers appeared by the hundreds at various gates to the 64,000-acre missile base early Monday. Most of them dispersed, to return when the afternoon shift reports for work.

Japanese Socialists Quit Parliament

Vote Frauds Hold Interest Of Assembly

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Legislature returned from a four-month recess Monday and immediately became embroiled in sharp debate over vote fraud allegations

Republicans introduced resolutions in the House and Senate demanding an investigation of alleged voting irregularities in Philadelphia, a Democratic stronghold.

Sen. Charles R. Weiner (D-Phila) Democratic floor leader, countered with a demand for similiar investigations of balloting in Dauphin, Montgomery, Cumberland, Bradford and Delaware counties, all predominantly Republican.

Action on the resolutions was put off until Tuesday as Democrats objected to immediate consideration.

Weiner, expected to make another attempt to include the five counties in the resolution, said he has material regarding cases of wholesale election law violations in those counties.

But Sen. G. Robert Watkins (R-Delaware said winner's proposal was a case of "the kettle calling the frying pan black."

"You're trying to cover up for your own county which is in miserable condition and you know it," Watkins declared.

Watkins said he doubted very much if there were any violation of the election code in his county but added that he would welcome an investigation by Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern if there were any irregularities.

Taylor (R-Dauphin) said all senators should be in favor of any investigation of alleged crookedness. He offered to join Weiner in sponsoring a separate resolution to investigate Dauphin County.

Eichmann Gave Up To Israel

Surrender Of Nazi Told

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Israel for the first time acknowledged officially Monday night that Israeli secret sleuths found and captured former Gestapo official Adolf Eichmann in Argentina.

But the Israeli government insisted he voluntarily surrendered to a volunteer commando group that hunted him down as Hitler's mass slayer of Jews.

In a note to the Argentine government, the Israeli government quoted Eichmann as saying that after being traced to Buenos Aires "I realized that it made no sense to try to continue hiding myself from justice."

Eichmann is awaiting trial in Israel on charges of complicity in the murder of six million Jews under the Nazi regime.

Until now, Israel had refused to disclose the details of Eichmann's capture. Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion's May 23 announcement of Eichmann's arrest set off a flood of speculation about the case.

The most persistent reports said Eichmann was nabbed here by Israeli secret service agents and rushed out of the country May 12 or 13 on the plane that had brought Israel's delegation to the Argentine independence anniversary celebrations.

No Evidence

A high source in the Argentine government said last week he was convinced of the general accuracy of the reports but lacked any evidence to support them.

Argentine President Arturo Frondizi ordered an immediate investigation and asked Israeli Ambassador Aarieh Levavi for a full explanation of the case.

The answering Israeli note said that volunteer agents who had been hunting Eichmann for 15 years finally traced him to Buenos Aires.

Eichmann readily admitted his identity, the note said, and when he was asked if he were disposed to present himself to justice in Israel, he asked for 24 hours to reply.

"This time was granted," the note continued. "The next day he manifested a conformity to go to Israel spontaneously to be tried and at the same time turned over to the group which found him a letter written in his hand."

The note said Israel expressed its regret if the agents violated Argentina's laws or sovereignty.

It urged Argentina to take into account, however, "the extraordinary significance which surrounds the fact there has been brought to justice a man who was responsible for the assassination of millions of persons belonging to the Jewish race."

The note did not disclose how Eichmann was taken to Israel. The Israeli government, according to the note, did not know that Eichmann had been found in Argentina until after he was taken to Israel.

From Spain

Reliable sources here said Eichmann, now 54, slipped into Argentina from Spain in 1952, using the name Ricardo Klement (or Clement) and carrying documents describing himself as a displaced person. The documents, including a passport, were reported issued by the Italian Red Cross through a Vatican relief agency.

After moving frequently from one Latin-American country to another, the informants said, Eichmann settled in a Buenos Aires suburb with his German-born wife and their four children.

The agents are believed to have traced Eichmann through his wife. After she turned up in Linz, Austria, in 1958 to renew her German passport, they reportedly followed her to Eichmann's hideout here.

Try To Block Ratification Of U. S. Pact

TOKYO (AP) — All the 125 Socialist members of the lower house are set now to drop out of Parliament in a last-ditch attempt to block ratification of the new U.S.-Japan security treaty.

The Socialists handed their written resignations Monday to the party chairman, Inejiro Asanuma, with the hope of toppling of Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi's government and cancellation of President Eisenhower's projected June 19-22 visit as related aims.

Asanuma is to file the resignations with the speaker of the 467-seat house, dominated by Conservative followers of Kishi, whenever he sees fit. The husky, gravel-voiced chairman said he will do so "at an opportune time."

The idea of the mass resignation of the Socialists displeased their Communist allies in the fight against the treaty, but won approval from an emergency convention of the Japan Socialist party.

The violently anti-American Akahata (Red Flag), the official organ of Japanese Communists, declared the resignations were negative and defeatist. It said the house was a battlefield which the deputies should not desert. The one Communist in the house is keeping his seat.

Treaty Effective Soon

Japanese ratification of the treaty, approved by the house at a session boycotted by Socialists, is effective automatically June 19 unless Kishi dissolves Parliament before then and calls for new elections. It still awaits confirmation in the U.S. Senate.

Kishi has made clear that he intends to hold onto the reins of government. And Cabinet Secretary Etsusaburo Shiina reiterated Monday that there are no plans to postpone Eisenhower's visit, officially as the guest of Emperor Hirohito.

The Socialists' hope is that the rising leftist pressure, dramatized by the resignations, will bring a majority of the public to their side.

Lack Of Funds Stalls State Roads Program

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania's multi-million dollar road-building program is being stalled by a lack of adequate funds, Highways Secretary Park H. Martin told a meeting of the House and Senate Highways Committees Monday.

Without making any plea for new taxes, Martin warned that "all possible administrative economies and austerity planning will not bridge the gap between the funds available and the funds needed."

An administration bill to boost the five-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax by a penny died in the 1959 Legislature.

Martin urged the committees to meet in a few months to chart "the over-all program needed to provide an adequate state highways system."

He said the department has been drawing more heavily on its cash balance to make up the differences between increasing costs and dwindling resources.

In 1957, he noted, the balance was 140 million dollars whereas it stood at $44,200,000 at the end of the first half of the biennium May 31.

"As you can readily see, we are now near the end of the line (for cash reserve use)," Martin said.

He also made a plea for legislation to put the department's key professional jobs under civil service. Professional and technical personnel now are under the merit system by executive order which can be changed at any time by the governor.

Martin said the professional people are "wary" of this type of job security.

He also urged improved salaries for the professional staff to bring state positions up to a scale approaching the salaries of professional personnel hired by private industry.

Martin said Pennsylvania, with its 41,701 miles of state highway mileage, is lagging behind similar states in expenditures for road construction.

He said Pennsylvania has a five-year average of 171 million dollars a year in construction and right of way purchase.

Pennsylvania is sixth among the states in federal funds committed for road construction projects and that, Martin said, is "just about where it should be."

Candidates Asked To Give Views On Parimutuel Bets

HARRISBURG (AP) — Candidates for the Legislature were called upon by the Pennsylvania Council of Churches Monday to state in the coming election campaign where they stand on the issue of legalizing parimutuel betting at flat races.

"Our people will want to know where the candidates stand and what they would do if this matter comes before the next Legislature," said the Rev. George I. Evans, head of the council's Division of Social Relations.

He said the council will ask local church groups to encourage discussion of the issue. The organization includes 18 Protestant denominations with some three million members.

Wants Record Known

"We think this is one issue that should be discussed so that the record is perfectly clear when the voters go to the polls in Novem-entatives,' Evans told a news-entatives,' Evans told a newsman.

All 210 House and 25 of the 50 Senate seats will be filled in the general election.

Evans said he already has heard talks that an effort will be made in the 1961 Legislature to pass a bill authorizing a statewide referendum on the question of permitting parimutuel betting at flat races.

The 1959 session approved legislation authorizing counties that desired to hold a referendum on whether to permit wagering at harness races only. Fourteen counties held referenda in the April 26 primary election and six of them approved betting at trotter tracks.

The council put on an intensive campaign to get the plan defeated.

Evans also disclosed the council was planning studies in the coming months to formulate a position on the issues of capital punishment and church property tax exemption.

"I think the issue of whether to abolish capital punishment will definitely come up in the next legislature and we want to have a position," he explained. The study on tax exemption of church property is being undertaken for the same reason, he added.

The Legislature passed but Gov. Lawrence vetoed a proposal in the 1959 session to exempt parsonages from property taxes. Only churches themselves are exempt now.

Man, 70, Battles Angry Mother Bear

ENGADINE, Mich. (AP)—A 70-year-old woodman fought hand to claw with an angry mother bear for 20 minutes in an Upper Michigan forest.

Arthur Le Gault saved himself from being mauled to death Sunday because he happened to be carrying a jackknife.

Brutally scratched, with two teeth clawed out and a muscle torn from his right arm, Le Gault fought with his fists before he remembered he had a knife in his pocket.

"I kept jabbing at the bear's eyes with the knife and finally she let loose of me and ran away," said Le Gault, a pulpwood cutter in Upper Michigan woods for the past 50 years.

Le Gault, who lives near Engadine on the edge of a forest, went out to look over timber for cutting. He spotted a medium size black bear and decided he would return home immediately. Le Gault had a scrimmage with a bear several years ago. But he was armed with a rifle then and killed the bear.

"The bear attacked me from behind," he said. "She took me by surprise and kept clawing away at me. I hit her on the nose with my fist but she stood up on her hind legs and kept up the attack."

Le Gault didn't know it at the time, but the bear apparently was angered because she thought he was coming too close to her two cubs.

After beating off the bear, Le Gault, although weakened by loss of blood, walked a mile and a quarter to his home. His son, Thomas, drove him to Tahquamenon General Hospital in Newberry.

Swedish Girl To Marry Sammy Davis

LONDON (AP) — Sammy Davis Jr. and blonde Mai Britt announced Monday night they plan to marry soon and raise a large family.

"And I don't care," said Davis, "If the children are polka dot."

The diminutive Negro entertainer and the tall shapely Swedish movie star declared their intentions at a crowded hotel news conference.

It was no surprise even though Miss Britt's divorce to American actor Eddie Gregson is not final until Sept. 28. Sammy, billed in cabaret here as "Mr. Wonderful" the title of a Broadway show he did breezily admitted that he does not expect everyone to like the idea.

"People don't have to egree—that's their prerogative," he said.

"I don't want everyone to agree—I just want to be left in peace." Davis once said that as a Jewish Negro with one eye he has all the handicaps he can handle. He lost an eye a few years ago in a California road accident. Although Davis is a convert to the Jewish faith, Miss Britt said she would not follow him in this.

Merger Approved

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Delegates to separate meetings of the AFL Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and the CIO State Industrial Union Council Monday approved a merger of the organization into one statewide labor group.

West End Places New Ambulance In Service

GILBERT — The West End Community Ambulance Assn. has purchased a 1960 Cadillac ambulance for $13,700 and has placed the equipment in operation.

The association numbers about 1,100 members covering Chestnuthill, Polk and Eldred Townships plus the fringes of surrounding townships.

The association was started about five years ago when a child from the Gilbert area was stricken with polio and the availability of an ambulance was the big question.

Membership in the association for one year costs $2 for the entire family. For this each member of the family is eligible for free service up to 90 miles as many times as necessary.

To the non-members a service charge of $20 is charged for service to Stroudsburg, Lehighton or Palmerton. Hospitals or towns for other than the above the service charge is $35.

The association has 16 qualified drivers any of which can be called at anytime during the day or night.

Maurice Kresge, president and founder of the association, said, "The old ambulance answered over 600 calls and covered more than 25,000 miles in the five years we had it."

He added, "Some of our calls took us to Scranton, Wilkes-Barre, Philadelphia and into New York State."

The new ambulance, painted white with a red trim, has accommodations for four people. This is accomplished by using cots suspended by hooks on one side and removable stanchions supporting the other side. A respirator and inhalator and the various instruments needed to render first aid are also carried in the modern vehicle.

Anyone wishing to make application for membership in the association or desires more information is urged to call Raymony Repp, OVerbrook 1-4544.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States agreed Monday to furnish Britain with the Skybolt air-launched ballistic missile when it is developed.

Sunday Drill Opposed By Church Group

BUCK HILL FALLS — The General Synod of the Reformed Church came out yesterday against drills on Sunday, the Sabbath, by national guard and reserve units.

A resolution adopted at the synod's annual meeting called for a discussion of the matter with "proper military authorities."

The delegates discussed United States recognition of Communist China and that country's admission to the United Nations. They failed, however, to agree on a stand and tabled the question.

This was done after long discussion of a proposal made by the Michigan Synod. The Michigan group recommended that the General Synod officially disavow a recommendation made in 1958 by the Cleveland World Study Conference of the National Council of Churches.

The conference had recommended United States recognition of Communist China and China's admission to the U.N.

Advance Refunding Announced

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Treasury said Monday it will offer up to 5½ billion dollars of new notes and bonds in exchange for a big issue of older bonds maturing late next year.

This will mark the first time that the government has made advance refunding of this kind under legislation passed last fall.

The advance swap offer is being made to holders of $11,177,152,000 of 2½ per cent bonds maturing Nov. 15, 1961.

The owners of these securities will have from June 8 through June 13 to signify whether they are willing to exchange their holdings for either a new four-year, 3¾ per cent note or a new eight-year, 3½ per cent bond.

Two Senators Disagree On Trip Delay

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) said Monday night he thought it might be wise for President Eisenhower to consider delaying his scheduled visit to Japan in view of anti-American demonstrations there.

Fulbright, chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, suggested that "perhaps the President might agree with the Japanese government to defer his visit until around October."

Fulbright expressed this view to a reporter as several other senators voiced some concern about the trip.

A different view, however, came from Sen. George D. Aiken (R-Vt.).

Aiken, a member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said in a separate interview that only a minor percentage of the Japanese people are opposed to the treaty, and a lesser percentage to the President's visit.

"I think the decision probably would be left to the Japanese government," Aiken said. "If the President doesn't go it will provide new propaganda fuel for Khrushchev. I'm sure the Japanese government wouldn't want the President to come if they didn't have the situation in hand."

Belvidere Youth Hurt In Mishap

ROBERT BARBARA Jr., 18, Belvidere, N. J., was reported in good condition yesterday in Monroe County General Hospital where he is recovering from injuries sustained in a one-car accident late Sunday.

He is being treated for shock and a head injury. State Police of the local barracks said Barbara was a passenger in a car driven by William J. Schwab, 18, Belvidere RD, which overturned at the intersection of Route 196 and the Stroudsburg Thruway at 11:55 p.m. Sunday.

Charge Schwab

Troopers charged Schwab with reckless driving and he paid a $25 fine and costs after a hearing before Jean Davis, Delaware Water Gap justice of the peace.

Troopers said Schwab apparently was traveling at high speed south on Route 196 and when he attempted to stop for a stop sign the car went out of control and turned over on its roof. Schwab and three other passengers were not injured.

Clark Sees No Trend

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D—Pa) said Monday he had found no strong trend among Pennsylvania delegates to the Democratic National Convention on a choice for the presidential nomination.

Clark said he thought that if the delegates are free to vote as they chose on the first ballot, Sen. John Kennedy (Mass) would "get quite a few votes—but not a majority.'"

Clark's reference was to reports that an attempt might be made to impose a unit rule on the delegation. Under the rule the entire block of 81 Pennsylvania votes would go for one candidate.

Clark said Rep. William J. Green, Philadelphia Democratic chairman, "has 21 votes in his pocket" and has agreed to go along with Gov. David Lawrence on keeping them uncommitted until the convention.

"How long this will last, I don't know," said Clark. He asserted that Dr. William McClelland and other Allegheny County Democratic leaders have indicated a preference for Kennedy. "It's hard to hold the whole delegation together," said Clark.

Ike Submits Nominations

Huge Balloon Studies Rays

BRUNSWICK, Ga. (AP)—A balloon 500-feet in diameter slowly began to move westward across the lower United States last night, carrying an 800-pound stack of nuclear emulsion plates to record cosmic rays.

The balloon held to an altitude of 114,000 feet 12 hours after it was launched from the Glynco Naval Air Station here.

But a near calm in the stratosphere kept it only 80 miles west of here at a point over Douglas, Ga. It was visible for miles in the clear June sky.

The balloon is expected to pick up speed and probably come down somewhere in Texas about 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Viechnickis' Cite Charitable Aides

ABOUT 75 friends, business associates and public officials joined with Zigmont J. and Theodore T. Viechnicki in a 25th anniversary party at the Penn-Stroud Hotel here last night—but somebody else got the anniversary present.

Honoring the Viechnicki firm's quarter century of business as a distributor of Ballantine ale and beer, the party was a combined family, business associates and community leaders function and the "anniversary present" actually turned out to be a series of cash donations totaling $2,500, which were distributed to eight different recipients as a Ballantine salute to the Viechnicki Brothers on the occasion of the East Stroudsburg Beverage Company's 25th anniversary.

The three largest donations were in the amount of $500 each and were distributed to the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau, Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce and Monroe County Communist Chest.

Other gifts in the amount of $200 were distributed to: Tobyhanna Township Volunteer Ambulance Corps, Milford Volunteer Ambulance Corps, Lackawaxen Township Volunteer Ambulance Corps, Barrett Township Volunteer Ambulance Corps and West End Township Volunteer Ambulance Corps.

A number of personal friends and "members of the family" were present to participate in the anniversary celebration. Included in this group were Jesse S. Flory, burgess of East Stroudsburg, Edward Doran, burgess of Stroudsburg, the wives of both Ted and Zig Viechnicki, as well as Mrs. Stella Viechnicki, mother of the Viechnicki boys.

Officials of P. Ballantine & Sons who came to Stroudsburg for the party were John E. Farrell, vice president; Carl S. Badenhausen, assistant general sales manager; W. H. Alley, general sales manager, Leonard B. Faupel, advertising manager; Walter Groner, assistant general sales manager; W. L. Zubrod, regional sales manager; J. W. Rinaldi, district sales manager; Ed Fisher, public relations manager; Arthur T. Gustafson, credit manager; Martin Eagen, special staff assistant to the general sales manager, and Thomas J. Investigation Of Paragraph BANGOR — An investigation of several paragraphs in the contract of Berkheimer and Co., retained by the Bangor School Board to collect the one per cent wage tax, was referred to Edmund P. Turtzo, board solicitor, for study at a meeting last night.

Dissatisfaction was expressed by several members of the board and they desire some legal interpretations of the contract.

Public Will Have Major Part In Laurel Festival

THE public will have a greater opportunity this year to take part in the annual Pocono Mountains Laurel Blossom Festival, thanks to the scheduling of five events open to all residents and visitors in the area.

Mrs. Sally Ferrebee, festival director, said the first public event is the coronation of the Laurel Blossom Queen on Friday at 3:45 p.m. on the Fountain Terrace at Pocono Manor Inn.

Betsy Palmer, television personality, will crown the new queen, the Colgate University "Thirteen" Glee Club will sing and the Tobyhanna Drill Team will present a military salute to the 17 college co-eds who comprise the festival's royal family.

Set For Photos

After the coronation, the queen and her royal court will be photographed amid the laurel at Pocono Manor. Photographers — amateur and professional — are invited to participate.

Except for the welcome dinner at the Penn-Stroud Hotel on Thursday at 6:30 p.m., the coronation is the first event of the June 9-15 Laurel Festival, sponsored by the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau.

The second public event is the coronation ball Friday night at Pocono Manor Inn. Starting time is 9 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at the door. Those wishing table reservations are asked to call TE 9-3611.

Highlights of the festival is the gals parade of floats bearing the princesses through the Stroudsburgs to the music of 10 or more bands and drum corps. This is scheduled for Saturday at 4 p.m. The parade will start at Maple Ave., East Stroudsburg, and proceed to Stroud Union High School, Stroudsburg.

Fifth public event is the Laurel Blossom Movie Premiere at the Sherman Theater, Stroudsburg, Saturday night. It will feature a top unreleased 20th Century-Fox Hollywood film in color and cinemascope with shows at 8 and 10 p.m.

Climaxing the first night extravaganza will be the introduction of the queen and her princesses at approximately 9 p.m.

Another entertainment highlight is the show to be hosted by Tom Waring and presented Sunday at 9 p.m. in Memorial Stadium, East Stroudsburg.

Male Star

The male star is Peter (Li'l Abner) Palmer, the former University of Illinois football star who went on to further fame on the stage and in television. Also to be featured will be Betty Johnson, who rose to stardom via television, recordings and personal appearances.

Other outstanding groups who will entertain include the Shawnee Recording Singers of the Fred Waring Workshop, the Almrausch Alpine Dancers, and the Colgate Glee Club.

A round of special events will occupy the time of the queen and princesses on Monday and Tuesday, with the festival drawing to a close with a farewell luncheon at Buck Hill Falls Inn on Wednesday, June 15.

Chamber Did Not Oppose Or Okay Harness Track

THE POCONO Mountains Chamber of Commerce did not oppose harness racing in Monroe County nor did it endorse it. This was emphatically reaffirmed by LeRoy Mikels at a membership meeting of the C of C Ambassadors in the Penn Stroud hotel today.

The question was raised when one of the Ambassadors stated, during a question and answer period, that a couple of prospective members refused to join because they were under the impression the C of C opposed harness racing.

Mikels stated that the question of harness racing was presented at a Chamber Board of Directors meeting but that no action was taken because several of the directors felt the problem was too controversial and not within the province of the Chamber's activity.

Might Have Split

"A stand either pro or con," he said, "might have split the Chamber of Commerce with the result that the entire Monroe County area would have suffered."

"It takes the united efforts of all," he added, "to make Monroe County grow. We can't be a group with divided interest if we are to accomplish this."

Another question answered was from a Mt. Pocono business man: "Why should I join the Chamber of Commerce when you locate all new industry in the Stroudsburgs?" The answer to that one was: "This is not true; the fact is that the Weiler Brush at Cresco was brought in by the C of C, and there are several other plants located in the Poconos.

Available Sites

"There would be more plants located in the Mountains if adequate industrial sites with necessary utilities were available," it was stated. Persons having such property available are asked to list it with the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce. It was further pointed out that many residents of the mountains work in Stroudsburg and E. Stroudsburg plants and take their pay checks home with them to spend in their own communities.

The membership meeting of the Chambers Ambassadors was conducted by Membership drive chairmen J. Albert Groner and William Nixon. Partial reports listed fifty-one new members signed to date. Because of the incompleteness of the reports it was decided to extend the drive one more week. It was announced, however, that all Ambassadors would have a clear field on prospects and would not have to confine their efforts to prospect lists apportioned them.

Groner further announced that the Ambassador club was not a temporary organization but one that would function on a year-round basis, with another membership drive slated for July.

Ambassador Team No. 5, captained by Albert George leads in the membership race with 430 points. Second William Osborne's Team No. 9, and third is Team No. 11, captained by James Gould.

Ambassadors with greatest number of points to date are: James Gould 210 points, Glen Sanborn, III, 180 points, Dick Altemose 150 points.

Easing Credits

With the threat of inflation lifted somewhat, the Federal Reserve Board has eased its policy of credit restraint by permitting two of the 12 reserve banks to reduce their discount rates from 4 to 3½ percent.

The higher rate had been in effect since last September after four successive increases from the 1¼ percent low at the bottom of the 1957-58 recession.

While the board's action was somewhat unexpected, there is sufficient evidence that it had been thinking about it for some time. Since the start of the year, it has reduced the pressure on commercial bank reserves, making more funds available for lending.

Furthermore, predictions of a 1960 boom had not materialized and the immediate problem had become one of encouraging economic growth.

The collapse of the summit conference, oddly enough, is regarded as having contributed to the board's decision to lighten its hand upon credit. Apparently the board was impressed by the calm reaction of business and consumers to the heightened world tensions caused by Mr. Khrushchev's bad manners.

People weren't scared into rushing out to stock up on goods and this was held to be a proper test of the non-inflationary attitude in the nation. In fact, the chief complaint of some businesses is that inventories are not being built up fast enough.

The cut in the discount rate is not expected to have an immediate effect, at least not until after the 10 other reserve banks also lower the rate they charge on loans to commercial banks.

Money is still tight and expensive to borrowers and likely to remain so for some time. And there is no guarantee that the inflationary tendencies will continue to ease off.

But, unless there is a sudden reversal of the trend of recent months, the board's decision to reduce discount rates should prove in the best interest of the country at a time when certain segments of the economy show signs of sagging.

Down On The Count

Mayors of several U.S. cities have complained to the Census Bureau that they are not, either, losing a big part of their populations to the suburbs. The U.S. nose counters have been reporting a decline in many urban population figures and, because so much state aid to cities is figured on a per-capita basis, city fathers are suggesting the census people are weak in arithmetic.

Although there have been demands for a recount of heads, the Census Bureau isn't taking the furor too seriously. Census officials note that the trend away from the cities was indicated in 1940 and strongly supported by 1950 totals. The 1960 results, they say, simply bore out expectations.

Well, the cities have been complaining for years about urban congestion, which they would remedy with massive Federal doles for public housing and other welfare facilities.

Now, it seems, these same cities are unhappy because they're faced with urban decongestion; people are moving out of town.

We can't help but wonder which of these problems the mayors want tended to first, the crowding or the uncrowding.

There's a chance of course, a slight chance, that if these mayors stopped hollering at Washington for awhile, they'd see that their problems may be taking care of themselves.

George Sokolsky Says . . .

Red China Propaganda

Out of Red China comes a magazine, "Evergreen," "A Magazine of Chinese Youth and Students," to tell the world of the wonders of Communist China. It is an interesting publication which leaves little to the imagination.

On the subject of the relations of Soviet Russia and Red China, Hu Yao-pang, First Secretary of the Central Committee of the Communist Youth League of China, wrote:

"During the past ten years all enemies who are hostile to our common cause have resorted to all possible means to create indifferences between our two peoples, in a fantastic attempt to weaken and undermine our great alliance. But all their efforts have come to naught.

"They will never achieve their aims, because our alliance and friendship is based on the principles of Marxism-Leninism and the great ideal of communism. This alliance and friendship is everlasting and unbreakable and nobody can ever split it."

"Evergreen" is frankly propagandistic, aimed at the Asiatic and African nations which employ English as a second language. It is clear that Red China seeks to establish itself as the leader of the Asiatic and African nations. Only since the Bandung Conference (1955) has any period in Chinese history been related to Africa. There is no record, ancient or modern, when China concerned itself with Africa or had any intercourse with African nations.

One of the phrases emphasized in all issues of "Evergreen" is "The Big Leap." This is the story of the move to industrialize Communist China. In an article entitled "China's Students Gather for a Triumphant Leap," appears this:

"Chinese students are concerned not only with the destiny of their own nation; they always regard it as an important constant task to maintain the struggle against imperialism and colonialism and in defence of world peace, and also to strengthen their ties of friendship and cooperation with the students of other countries.

"We firmly support the Asian, African and Latin American peoples in their just struggle against imperialism and colonialism and for the achievement and defense of national independence. We spare no efforts in building friendly relations and cooperation with the students of all lands. The world situation today is excellent for our struggles. The East wind has prevailed and will continue to prevail over the West wind. . ."

In the April issue is an article entitled, "We Firmly Support the Struggle of Latin American Youth Against U.S. Imperialism," by Chien Li-jen, Council Member of China-Latin America Friendship Association and Secretary General of All-China Youth Federation. A cartoon shows an enormous fist with the slogan, "Yankee Go Home!" A smaller fist bears the slogan: "Ike Go Home!" The article says:

"The victory of the Cuban people's revolution was a most inspiring historical event in the national and democratic movement of Latin America. During the past year and more, the heroic Cuban youth alongside their people have time and again smashed the U.S. imperialists' provocations and aggressive schemes.

"In face of the frenzied threats and barbarous outrages committed by U.S. imperialism, the people and youth of Cuba have displayed a dauntless spirit against the enemy. Closely united, they are determined to defend their revolution unswervingly. Their heroic struggles have dealt a telling blow to U.S. imperialism and inspired the fighting will of the peoples and youth of Latin American countries.

"Throughout the whole Latin American continent, from Argentina's Tierra del Fuego to the Caribbean Sea, there has risen a tornado that has turned the so-called 'strategic rear' of the United States into the front line of the struggle against U.S. imperialism."

There is also an article on Japan's Youth Firmly Oppose Japan-U.S. Military Alliance." It is an attack on Prime Minister Kishi of Japan and on the United States. In this article appeared this:

"The struggle of the Japanese people and youth against the Japan-U.S. 'Security Treaty' has enabled an increasing number of people to see even more clearly that only by waging and unyielding and resolute struggle against the U. S. and Japanese reactionaries' machinations of aggression and war can Japan take the road of peace, independence, democracy and neutrality. . . ."

"Evergreen" gives the key to much of Red China's policy. It is interesting to note that a large sector of the world Communist propaganda effort has been transferred from the Kremlin to Peking. Not only the people of Southeast Asia are in the Chinese orbit, but also of Africa and Latin America.

Life Is What You Make It

Dear Abby: My parents are starting in on me again this year about going to summer camp. I went last year (I am 12) and I hated it like poison. I didn't have one friend.

Do you think it is fair for parents to FORCE a child to go to summer camp even if she hates it?

They tell me it is very expensive and I should appreciate going, but I think they just want to get rid of me for six weeks. Oh, Abigal, what shall I do?

HATES CAMP

Dear Hates Camp: There is no better age than yours — and hardly a better place than camp for young people to learn how to get along with others. The experience of living away from home will encourage maturity and develop independence that will be invaluable in later years. Change your attitude, Honey, and go. You'll discover that you need only to offer your friendship and it will be accepted.

Dear Abby: Can a man love his wife and be in love with another woman at the same time? Please answer Yes or No.

IRENE

Dear Irene: Yes. And if you are interested in the details of this age old problem, read the article, "What Is This Thing Called Love," in the June issue of McCall's. I wrote it.

Dear Abby: There is nothing anyone (including you, Abby) can do about my problem because it's too late, but I'd like to give a word of warning to the girl who is so much in love with a man that she'd gladly "work her fingers to the bone" for him.

When I was married, I agreed to work for a year—until we got "established." That year has stretched into 13. My husband has come to depend on my income to pay the bills. He works steady, but no one seems to know where his money goes. (Excuse me, he pays the insurance.)

I don't believe in divorce, but I'm ready to walk out because I feel like a workhorse. No children. We can't afford them. (I make $330 a month and he makes $550.) I wish someone had told me years ago that when a man encourages his wife to work when they are first married, chances are he's selfish. She won't respect him very long, either. And when respect is gone—love soon flies out the window.

STUCK

Dear Abby: We just bought a new home and I told a friend of mine that I was planning on having a house-warming party She looked horrified and told me that it was not proper for a person to have a house-warming party herself. That was supposed to be done by her friends.

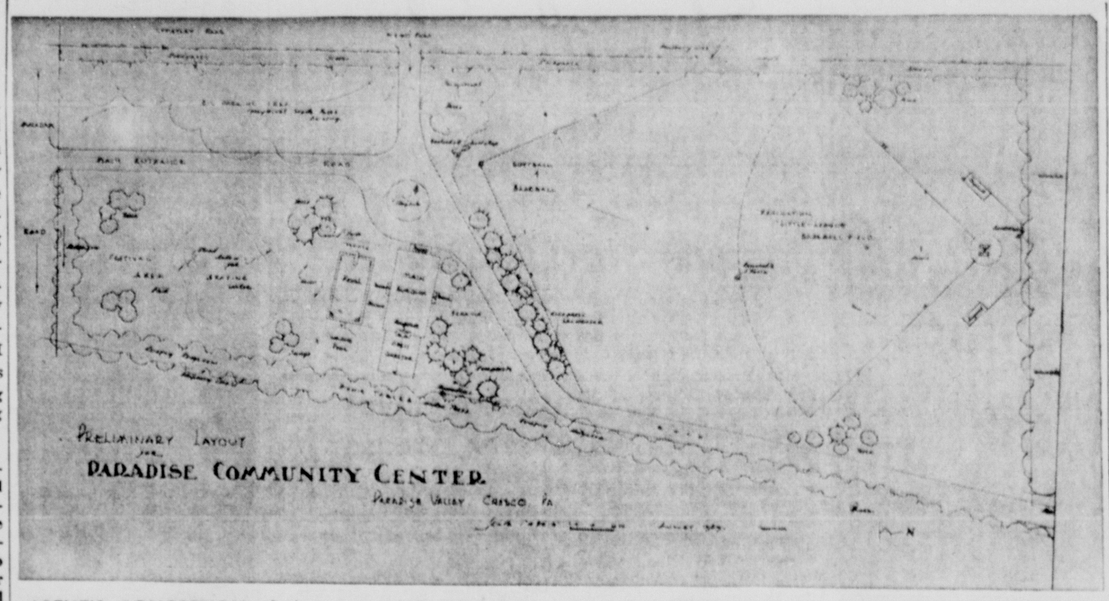

How can my friends possibly have a party in MY home without my help and permission? I didn't want to ask her this question for fear of appearing stupid. That's why I'm asking you.

PERPLEXED

Dear Perplexed: New homeowners are frequently surprised by friends who drop in with refreshments and gifts for the home. This is called a "housewarming" party. If you want to give a party to "initiate" your new home, it is perfectly all right. But don't use the term "house-warming" or they'll think you are playing it cool to get gifts.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of this paper. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Abby's best-selling book, "Dear Teen-ager," is on sale at all bookstores.

Just Between Us — —

—By Bobby Westbrook

In the fable of the Country Mouse and the City Mouse, I was always on the side of the Country Mouse. There are two basic kinds of people: Those who like large things and those who like small things.

Some people like big vistas of mountain and sky, and some like backyards and little creeks Some people like telescopes and some like microscopes. And I prefer knowing a lot of things about a few people to knowing a few things about a lot of people.

And sometimes I know things they don't know I know. Seeing Mr. and Mrs. William Kirkpatrick in town yesterday after a trip to Hawaii reminded me of the item I read recently about Mrs. Kirkpatrick when she was Mary Staples in The Record of March 24, 1910.

It had a big headline: "Miss Staples Awarded Honor," and a smaller, longer headline. "Stroudburg Young Lady Wins Membership in Phi Beta Kapa (sic) Society by Reason of Merit."

And the story goes on "Hon. C. B. Staples received a telegram from student friends of Miss Mary Staples, his daughter, who is a senior at Smith College in Massachusetts stating that the young lady has been elected a member of the Greek fraternity, Phi Beta Kapa, which is a signal honor.

"The members of this fraternity are chosen on merit entirely and are not confined to any particular college. Seniors who make the required marks throughout the whole course only are eligible which makes the achievement all the more creditable for Miss Staples."

So there! And just to keep it even, I also note that Mr. Kirkpatrick is due to go back for his 50th reunion at Lafayette this year. As to what he discovered in Hawaii—that's his story.

Salmon Souffle Lightens Menu In Summertime

By Alice Denhoff

If you would like something different as the star of a summertime luncheon menu, then try a delicious, light, yet satisfying Salmon Souffle.

To serve 8, drain 2 (7¾ oz.) cans salmon and add enough milk to liquid to measure 2 c.

In saucepan, combine 5 tbsp. quick - cooking tapioca, ½ tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. celery salt, ¼ tsp. pepper, tsp. minced onion and salmon liquid. Bring mixture to full boil over direct heat, stirring constantly.

Add Salmon

Remove from heat; add flaked salmon and tbsp. minced parsley. Let cool slightly while beating 3 egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Add beaten egg yolks and mix well. Fold into 3 stiffly-beaten egg whites.

Turn mixture into greased baking dish. Place in pan of hot water and bake at 350° F. for 1 hr., or until souffle is firm.

To serve 5-6 an unusual meat loaf, mince 1 onion and saute lightly in 2 tbsp. vegetable oil.

Combine with 1½ lbs. ground beef, tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. sage and 2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce.

Add 1 c. soft bread crumbs, or 2 slices bread, soaked in ½ c. milk and 1 unbeaten egg. Mix well, using hands instead of spoon, if you prefer.

Place half of mixture into well-oiled loaf pan.

Cover With Pimientos

Arrange ½ c. (4-oz. can or jar) whole pimientos, rolled, across top of meat. Cover with rest of meat.

Bake at 325° F. for 1 hr.

In addition to adding a pleasant flavor, the pimientos make a pretty red center layer.

Here's a special strawberry dessert that is perfect for now.

Soften Gelatin

Soften 1 envelope unflavored gelatin in 2 tbsp. cold water for 5 min. Place over boiling water and stir until dissolved.

Blend in 1½ c. fully-crushed strawberries, tbsp. lemon juice, ¾ c. sugar and ⅛ tsp. salt.

When almost set, fold in 1 c. heavy cream, whipped.

Line 1-qt. mold or casserole with sugar wafers. Spoon in strewberry mixture.

The Wyckoff Shopper

"the friendly store" A.B. Wyckoff Stroudsburg, Pa.

As Walter Winchell might say, "Orchids to the June Bride." When I echo his tribute, I am not thinking just of the flower, however. I am thinking of the beautiful color shown by Vanity Fair in one of the most exquisite of the gown and peignoir sets in display in our lingerie department. This particular set is entirely of orchid, the lavish lace exactly matching the tricot of both robe and gown. Both feature a rich, deep yoke of the lace, and the peignoir has pushup lace sleeves. The set looks far more expensive, but is priced at only 21.95.

Seamprufe has created another robe and gown which caught my eye . . . not as sophisticated as the orchid, but very appealing and feminine. They are of sheerest nylon in either white or pink, over nylon tricot. The white is very bridal, of course, and has touches of pink in the ribbon bow at the neckline of the robe, and the rosebud embroidery. The all-pink set is my personal choice—as refreshing as one's very first of strawberries and cream. The gown is 10.98 . . . the set, 29.98.

Another lovely set is in blush white by Artemis. Blush white is actually sheer white over pink tricot. Nothing could be more devastatingly faminine . . . particularly when the styling is so "wedding cake pretty." The gown is 8.95; the peignoir, 14.95.

For the bride on a budget, Schrank suggests a delightful line of drip dry sleepwear in white, with "porcelain print" embroidery combining blue or pink with white. These nightfies and robes are priced at 15.00 a set, while baby doll pajamas and matching robes are 6.00 each.

Although I particularly mentioned these in relation to June weddings, they would be equally suitable as gifts to the girl graduate, or as a gift to yourself, just to make you feel lovelier, well cared for, and "extra special."

* * *

There is probably no more frustrating time each year than Father's Day—both for the wife, son or daughter in quest of a gift, and for Dad himself, the "thrilled" recipient. The big problem is that unless good old Dad has a few vices such as drinking or smoking, or is a sports enthusiast, it is often difficult to think of an unusual gift for him. From Dad's viewpoint, the headache is in having to sound thrilled and elated over just another tie or box of cigars.

After visiting our Wyckoff's men's shop, I am certain that this year the problem is less taxing than at any time in the past. Fashions for Dad are wondrously casual and different. The emphasis this year is on gold . . . and no matter how well cared for father has been in the past, chances are he doesn't have a great deal of apparel, or accessories, in the new fashion color chart. Sportswear this year it seems to me, is more fun . . . more dashing . . . and even the neckwear has a jauntier, livelier quality.

One gift most Dads would welcome is the new 3-speed Schick electric razor. This amazing shaver permits an easier, more efficient, comfortable shave since one can actually adjust the part that does the shaving. This is undoubtedly a feature many men would appreciate. See the Schick . . . also Remington, Sunbeam, and Norelco shavers at Wyckoff's—and be sure to think of Wyckoff's when you think of Dad.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

For Tuesday, June 7, 1960

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—If you have a dallying start, with misgivings or needless hesitation, you will not enjoy the fruits of labor others will. Such mean temptations are about; steer clear.

April 21 to May 21 (Taurus) — Never mind the weather, know what your work and obligations are and tend them assiduously, conscientiously (as the true Taurean does). Some odd advantages now.

May 22 to June 21 (Gemini) — A time for re-checking, some re-viewing; for making sure of facts as opposed to suppositions. Don't disregard could-be successful theories. Assist young folks.

June 22 to July 23 (Cancer)—New ideas, revised, improved old ones will gain more ground than expected, properly handled. YOU must continue trying, and don't think others are against you; see the bright side.

July 24 to August 23 (Leo)—Here, too, a late start and dawdling may tempt. You know what to do from experience. Keep after YOU, eliminate foolish bickering words, wasteful re-talking over old errors.

August 24 to September 23 (Virgo) — If you have time, go over plans, note where cutting is in order. But don't spend day this way. ACTION must begin and continue if you are to achieve. Steady does it!

September 24 to October 23 (Libra) — We always see others' mistakes clearer, but when Libra THINKS, he (she) sees all in wise perspective. Gather knowledge from careful places; sift and use sagaciously.

October 24 to November 22 (Scorpio) — Mars' position suggests extra care expressing thoughts, writings (don't put down what you may later wish you had not), in domestic affairs. Fresh opportunities.

November 23 to December 21 (Sagittarius) — Planet Jupiter in fine configuration. Agricultural, education information should be studied well; observe how others feel toward rules, happenings. Work with ease.

December 22 to January 20 (Capricorn) — Here is chance for your practicality to mold a better day with greater support from all through cooperation, good will. Work, domesticity ask patience.

January 21 to February 19 (Aquarius) — It is sometimes lonely to do things under criticism, rebuffs, but at these times we get the opportunity to show our inner strength and capability. Look up, be confident.

February 20 to March 20 (Pisces) —Don't neglect little things that can upset a day's progress or best results when mishandled. Today could be a winner, OR a wasted one —up to YOU!

YOU BORN TODAY, under GEMINI, are versatile, sensitive, energetic, ambitious, original, and more. You can work with, and for, superiors, and toward more than one goal at one time. Curtail activities occasionally, be sure you are not over-doing, depleting your fine God-given vitality. Put Firsts first, don't aim in too many directions. You could be humanitarian in fields of medicine, nursing, philosophy, etc. Enjoy outdoor exercise regularly, and as general rule, eat plain, nourishing foods. May make some best strides in August this year. Birthdate of: George Bryan "Bear" Brummel, leader of 19th century English fashions.

Bavasi Puts Blame On Umpire

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The general manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers said Monday that Umpire Stan Landes has a habit of losing his head instead of using it.

Buzzie Bavasi, whose defending world champions trail five teams in the National League, blames Landes for an injury that may keep ace reliever Larry Sherry on the shelf for two weeks.

Sherry sprained his ankle when he stepped on a bat while running in to cover home plate in Saturday night's Chicago game. Bavasi says a batboy ran out to pick up the bat but Landes took it away from him and tossed it up the first base line.

Arbiter Denies

"Landes denied Bavasi's story. 'I never touched it,' he said, and I'll tell that to Bavasi...I don't know how it got there. I always try to protect the players on a play at the plate."

But Bavasi said Landes didn't tell him any such thing.

"I'm not saying Landes did it deliberately," Bavasi said. "I wouldn't accuse him of that. He just doesn't think.

National Hockey League Opens Annual Parley At Montreal

MONTREAL (AP) — Trade offers, some entailing wholesale swaps, and rumors of deals were rife Monday as the National Hockey League opened its annual meeting. But nobody would admit anything had jelled.

Consummation of any swaps is virtually certain to come before the 5 p.m. deadline Tuesday when clubs must hand in their protected lists to NHL headquarters.

Biggest offer numerically was a five-for-four trade the Boston Bruins offered the New York Rangers.

No Names

General Manager Lynn Patrick of the Bruins disclosed no names but the guessing had it that Leo Boivin and Larry Hillman figured in the offer from the Bruins' end and Eddie Shack from the New York side.

Patrick admitted he would be interested in getting goalie Lorne (Gump) Worsley from the Rangers but said nothing had materalized.

Another proposed deal was reported to be Bob Armstrong and Larry Hillman of Boston for Bobby Baun and Ron Stewart of the Toronto Maple Leafs.

The Rangers were also said to have offered Larry Popein to Chicago for Tod Sloan, but Black General Manager Tommy Ivan wasn't interested.

Scoffs At Rumor

General Manager Jack Adams of the Detroit Red Wings scoffed at a rumor Detroit would send Marcel Pronovost to Montreal in exchange for Ralph Backstrom.

The NHL's intra-league draft, at $20,000 a player, comes up Wednesday.

Each club can protect 18, plus two goalies, from the draft.

OFF FOR A $90,000 JOB—Signed with the San Francisco Giants for an estimated $90,000 bonus, Dickie Dietz says goodby to his wife, Judy, and their daughter at the Greenville, S. C., airport. He joined the Artesia, N. M., team in the Sophomore League. He is 18 and a catcher.

Runnels Fires Hits Over AL

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Pistol Pete Runnels is firing base hits all over American League ball parks while building a commanding lead in the junior circuit batting race.

The 32-year-old Boston infielder held a 37 point advantage over runnerup Whitey Herzog of Kansas City Monday. Runnels climbed 22 points in last week's games, collecting 17 hits in 38 tries. He's hitting .378 while Herzog is at .341.

In the National League, Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh has regained the No. 1 position from Milwaukee's Joe Adcock. A 5-for-8 performance in Sunday's doubleheader against Philadelphia boosted Clemente's mark to .360. Adcock had only one safety in seven at bats in a twin-bill with Cincinnati and dropped to second place at .349.

Maris Boosts

Roger Maris of the New York Yankees turned in a productive performance last week. He climbed from 10th place to third in the batting race with 12 hits in 27 times at bat. Roger is batting .338. He also walloped four homers and drove in eight runs to maintain his lead in these categories with 14 homers and 36 RBI.

Rookie Tony Curry of Philadelphia moved into a contending position in the National Leage batting derby. In the No. 7 spot a week ago, Curry increased his average 13 points to .339 and zoomed into third place. Bob Skinner of Pittsburgh fell one place to fourth at .335.

Ken Boyer of St. Louis continues to lead in homers with 14 while Clemente is the top man in RBI with 43.

Bolt Gains First Tourney Since '58

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Tommy Bolt won his first tournament since the 1958 National Open Monday, edging Ben Hogan and Gene Littler in the playoff for top money in the $30,000 Memphis Open.

Bolt fired a 33-35—68 over the 6,500 yard, 34-36—70 Colonial Country Club course to shave Hogan by a stroke. Littler pulled in third with 36-34—70. The fat end of the purse was $4,300.

After turning the front nine with a big three-stroke lead, Bolt faded and reached the 17th hole square with Hogan. But a clutch seven-putt went down for the bird which meant victory.

Hogan and Littler split second and third place money, which totaled $5,000. The three pros had finished with a seven-under-par 273s.

The dandy dresser from Crystal River, Fla., almost sewed it up on the front nine. He stood three over Hogan and four over Littler at the turn. Then Hogan, the Fort Worth Hawk, made his run.

On the crucial 17th—a 165-yard par three—Bolt laid his tee shot seven feet from the pin. Hogan was 12 feet away and took two putts to get down. Littler two-putted from eight feet.

The jubilant Bolt said his tee shot from the 17th was the turning point of the match.

"I used a two iron and choked up on the shaft," he said. "When it almost went into the cup I knew I was rolling."

The three pros split half of the gate for the extra 18-hole playoff, picking up $432 each.

Rickey Endorses Kefauver

NEW YORK (AP) — Branch Rickey, Continental League president Monday endorsed the amended version of the Kefauver Bill that would curtail player operations of the major leagues and open the way for a third big league.

The bill, currently in the hands of the Judiciary Committee, is due to be acted upon Thursday or Friday.

The amended version eliminates the reference to player control limitation but makes all minor players with four years of service in organized baseball eligible for an unrestricted draft.

"The Continental League wholeheartedly endorses the bill," Rickey said in a press conference. "It does two things. It provides a just and reasonable unrestricted draft and it permits organization of new major leagues.

Under an agreement with the major leagues, the Continental League must comply with certain stipulations, such as parks, players, pension plan, indemnity to the minors, etc., six months before the start of its first season. The Continental League has maintained it intends to start operating in 1961.

Three Rings Top Teddy's

THREE-RING-PETE's defeated Teddy's Tavern last night 18-11 in a Monroe County Softball League game at the Stroudsburg Playgrounds.

Three-Ring drew first blood as they scored seven runs in the first inning and again in the seventh to put the game away.

Teddy's scored three runs in the last frame on Harold Strunk's three run homer but it was not enough to overcome Three-Ring-Pete's.

Sam Strunk went the distance for Teddy's allowing 17 hits while Joel Hahn for Three-Ring pitched six innings giving seven hits. Hahn was relieved by Don Miller for one inning and he gave up two additional hits.

Winning pitcher was Hahn and Strunk was charged with the loss.

NEW YORK (AP) — An unearned run in the ninth inning broke a 2-2 tie and gave the Chicago White Sox a 3-2 victory over New York Monday night. It was their fourth decision over the Yankees in four games this season.

Luis Aparicio's third single—off the glove of third baseman Gil McDougald — brought the winning run home after two errors by McDougald and Sherm Lollar's third single had loaded the bases.

Gerry Staley won his sixth against one defeat in relief of Billy Pierce although he worked just one frame and gave up a tying home run by Roger Maris in the eighth. It was Maris' 15th, top total in the majors and third against the White Sox.

Fight Unit Probing

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Athletic Commission said Sunday it is conducting an inquiry into last Friday night's Emile Griffith-Jorge Fernandez television fight at St. Nicholas Arena. The commission indicated it was not happy over the decision.

Griffith, of New York, was awarded a split decision over the Argentine after ten lively rounds. Many of the fans jeered the verdict and some of the hot-headed customers fired five chairs from the low hanging balcony into the ring. No one was seriously hurt.

The New York Boxing Club, Inc., which promotes at St. Nicks, was directed to provide better special police supervision.

In the fight, Referee Pete Della and Judge Jack Gordon each voted for Griffith by 5-4-1 scores. Judge Joe Agnello had Fernandez ahead, 6 rounds to 4. A ringside poll showed a 9-1 margin for Fernandez with 2 writers calling it a draw.

Twin City Softball Team Splits

TWIN CITY Television's softball team split two games with Volpi Builders of Philadelphia, former national champions, Sunday on the Upper Merion High School field.

Twin City copped the opener, 5-0, and lost the nightcap, 4 to 2.

Lind was the winner in the opening game, while the loss in the second game was sustained by Elmer.

Lind held Volpi to one hit, while Twin City collected five off Price, the loser. In the second game, Volpi outhit the locals, eight to five.

Young Pros Gain Ground

TWO little-known young pros, an old-timer and an amateur, led the sectional qualifying trials Monday for next week's National Open Golf Championship.

Meanwhile, some of the game's biggest names failed to make the grade.

Former champion Gene Sarazen withdrew from the tests at Mamaroneck, N.Y., because of an infected ear. Former amateur king Skee Riegel and William Hyndman III of Philadelphia, top Walker Cup star, missed out also at Mamaroneck's Winged Foot Golf Club.

Don Essig III of Indianapolis, 1957 Public Links champion, was a casualty at Cincinnati.

Don Bis, 23-year-old assestant pro at Seattle, fired the day's hottest golf with 66-71—137, nine under par, which paced the Pacific Northwest tests at Seattle.

Gordon Waldespuhl, a one-time freshman pro from Dayton, Ohio, led at Cincinnati with 71-68—139, five under par. An amateur, Robert Gardner of White Plains, N. Y., was best of the star-spangled field of 81 at Winged Foot, leading with 70-67 — 137. Johnny Bulla of Phoenix, Ariz., a veteran who tired of the pro circuit, topped Denver qualifiers with two rounds of 69, two under par, for 138.

All together, thirty-eight players out of 172 qualified to join 21 exempt entrants in the field of 150 who will tee off at the Cherry Hills Country Club in Englewood, Colo., June 16. The tournament is scheduled June 16-18.

The remaining 91 are to be decided Tuesday in nine additional sectional trials.

Australian Cops Race

ZANDVOORT-ON-SEA, Netherlands (AP)—Jack Brabham of Australia won the Dutch Grand Prix Monday in a record-shattering auto race which brought death to one spectator and injury to five others.

Dan Gurney of Riverside, Calif., overshot a hairpin bend some 250 yards past the grandstand and his car plowed into the sand dunes where spectators were lining the circuit.

A 17-year-old youth was hit by the car, a BRM, and the boy died en route to the hospital. Five other youngsters in the group were hurt, none seriously.

Brabham, the world driving champon last year, led all the way in a Cooper, covering 196.5 miles and 75 laps in 2 hours, 1 minute, 47.2 seconds. His average speed was 96.29 mph, a track record. Innes Ireland of Britain, in a Lotus, was second in 2:02.11, followed by two other Britons. Graham Hill, in a BRM, was third in 2:02:43.8 and Stirling Moss was fourth in 2:02:44.9.

Race Track Official Dies

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Race track executive Benjamin F. Lindheimer, 69, died of a heart attack at his vacation home Sunday night.

He was executive director of the Arlington Track and president of Washington Park, both in the Chicago area.

Lindheimer was born in Chicago and entered the real estate business there in 1912. He got into horse racing in 1935, when a group he headed acquired control of Washington Park. He refurbished the park and five years later his group purchased Arlington.

Patterson Weighs 194

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson weighed 194 pounds Sunday when he underwent a routine physical examination at the state athletic commission.

The former heavyweight champion wore only pants and socks when he stepped on the scales. Patterson weighed 182 pounds when he lost his title on a third round technical knockout to Sweden's Ingemar Johansson last June 26.

Patterson wants to be heavier—between 186 and 188 pounds—for his return bout with Johansson at the Polo Grounds, June 20.

West German Betters Mark

AACHEN, Germany (AP) — Wiltrud Urselmann, West Germany's Olympic swimming hopeful, Monday bettered the world record of the women's 200-meter breakstroke with a time of 2:50.2.

The listed world mark is 2:50.3 set by England's Anita Lonsbrough last year.

The 18-year-old German girl smashed the record in Olympic trials in a 50-meter pool at Oberbruch.

Crabgrass Control Listed For Lawns

CRABGRASS is beginning to germinate now. A dense turf produced by good lawn management practices including the use of adapted species, adequate liming and fertilization, proper mowing, judicious watering and insect control is the best control of crabgrass and other weeds.

Crabgrass does not do well under shaded conditions. Turf cut no lower than one and one-half to two inches provides shade conditions that retard crabgrass growth. Frequent shallow watering should be avoided since each watering affords an opportunity for more crabgrass seed to germinate and also favors the shallow rooted crabgrass at the expense of the deeper rooted lawn grasses.

Crabgrass cannot be controlled quickly or even in one growing season because of the great number of viable seeds in the soil from previous years of infestation. By controlling seed production over several years, the viable seed supply in the soil will be diminished to a point where it is no longer a serious threat to the lawn.

Most Effective

Phenyl mercuric acetate, commonly called PMA, is the most effective chemical for controlling seedless crabgrass in May and June. PMA is available in most garden supply outlets in wto concentrations — ten percent material and two percent material. When in doubt about the concentration of a given brand of PMA, follow the manufacturer's recommended rate which will be found on the container.

PMA is most effective when crabgrass plants are in the two to three leaf stage and soil moisture conditions are adequate for normal growth. The treated area should not be watered or mowed for two days following application of PMA.

Three to five treatments at ten to fourteen day intervals may be required to obtain proper control.

PMA is not recommended on Merion bluegrass or on lawns containing a high percentage of Merion bluegrass. Disodium methyl arsonate is recommended for Merion bluegrass.

Feeding Shrubs Common Practice

FEEDING shrubs immediately following their flowering period is becoming a common practice. For small shrubs a half a handful of a complete fertilizer such as 5-10-5 or 5-10-10 or a similar analysis can be placed on the surface of the soil surrounding the plants and lightly raked in. Be sure to water copiously after the plant food has been applied.

Larger plants can be given larger proportions of plant food.

Black Spot Top Cause Defoliation

DID the leaves fall off your hybrid tea roses last summer? Black spot causes most of this defoliation of tea roses. It's caused by a parasitic fungus.

This fungus over-winters in the infected leaves which dropped to the ground last summer. It becomes active about the time that new growth starts in the spring. Spores are then discharged which drift to these new leaves and start infections. What happens then? Well, black spots develop and more spores are produced to cause spread to other leaves. Eventually, all leaves may become infected and drop.

Black spot may be controlled effectively. However, this will require effort on your part. Starting as the first leaves are one-half inch long, commence a spray program. The spray applications should be repeated at one week intervals throughout the season. Starting later in the season will still give partial control. However, it's not as effective as the early start.

Some Effective

Several fungicides are effective when applied throughly and regularly. Maneb, or phaltan or captan or zineb or even ferbam will give satisfactory results. Because of the varying bulk of these materials, the dosages are different. Follow instructions on the label.

These materials are available at most farm supply and hardware stores, nursery centers, and even in drug stores and groceries. These materials may be combined with sulfur or Karathane to also control powdery mildew or with insecticides where insects are a problem.

Further information on spraying roses is available in mimeographed form at your County Agent's office. Just ask for "Spraying or Dusting Roses in Home Gardens."

Put House Plants Outdoors

HOUSE plants, foliage and flowering can be put out of doors in a sheltered area, but foliage plants such as snake plant or philodendron are best put in a lightly shaded area.

Most flowering plants such as geraniums do best in full sunlight. To prevent the soil from drying out too rapidly, plunge the pots into the soil up to their rims. Do not let the plants dry out during a drought.

Keystone Rates In Sheep Field

PENNSYLVANIA is not the center of the sheep industry but, even so, the 1954 United States Census of Agriculture credited the state with 9,772 farms keeping 267, 677 head of sheep and lambs valued at $3,713,252.

Recognizes

The Pennsylvania State University recognizes the educational needs of sheep growers by offering a correspondence course entitled Sheep Husbandry. The course consists of 7 lessons. There are no educational requirements for enrollment and it carries no regular university credit.

The course explains characteristics of the various breeds of domestic sheep and how to make selections for a farm flock. Lessons also include information on caring for lambs, and wool production.

Registration fee for the Sheep Husbandry course is $1.75. Make checks or money orders payable to The Pennsylvania State University, and send to Correspondence Courses, 202 Agricultural Education Building, University Park, Pa.

Area Boys Win Honors

THREE area boys participating in a state-wide Dairy Herd contest have been awarded medals for their entries in the contest.

Dale Gum, Pen Argyl High School and member of the Future Farmers of America Chapter there, was named first place winner in the state. He was awarded a gold medal.

Receiving a silver medal for sixth place is Richard Lieberman also of Pen Argyl High School.

Larry Altemose, Chestnuthill High School, was awarded a Bronze medal for his seventh place entry.

Housefly Breeds, Feeds Extensively On Wastes

THE HOUSEFLY breeds and feeds most extensively in manure, garbage, and fermenting crop wastes. If disease germs are in these materials, or in others they frequent, the flies get them on their hairy legs and feet and in their digestive tracts. If flies have access to man's food, they contaminate it by walking over it and by leaving their excreta on it.

To control the housefly in and around the home, on the farm, and in farm buildings, eliminate the flies' breeding places. Follow sanitary practices constantly. Keep garbage and other refuse under cover; dispose of garbage frequently. On the farm dispose of manures properly.

Screens Essential

Screen windows and doors of the home, dairy barns and milkrooms. Well-fitting screens on windows and doors are essential for keeping flies out.

To kill flies quickly inside a home or other building, use a space spray or an aerosol. The quick-killing material for space sprays is either pyrethrins or organic thiocyanates. Another method of control is by surface sprays on walls and ceilings. These sprays leave a residue that may be effective for several weeks.

The two most commonly used residue materials in Pennsylvania are Diazinon or ronnel. Get information on proper amounts and methods of use from the agricultural extension office.

Insecticides, such as dipteryx and malathion, are used in dry and liquid baits. When properly used baits are very effective in controlling flies in farm buildings.

Farm Products Prices Decline

PRICES received by Pennsylvania farmers in mid-May were three percent lower than the average one month earlier, the State Agriculture Department reported Tuesday.

It said the decrease was mainly caused by lower wholesale prices for milk and eggs.

Although lower than the previous month, the department said the over all index of prices was seven percent higher than the average for mid-May of last year.

Prices for livestock and livestock products averaged four percent lower than the previous month and prices received for crops was some two percent lower.

The department said the wholesale price for milk was $4.35 per hundredweight, about 25 cents less than in April and egg prices averaged 37 cents a dozen, about six cents lower.

To the do-it-yourself mechanic, if you need a "creeper" to get under your car to work place four casters on the bottom of an old ironing board and you are in business.

Chicken Barbecue Pleasant

A CHICKEN barbecue in the open is a very pleasant way to entertain the family or a group of friends, and you don't need elaborate equipment.

All you need is a grill raised a foot to 16 inches above a charcoal fire. For ten halves of chicken use from 10 to 15 pounds of charcial briquettes. Start the fire about one and a half to two hours before the chicken is to be served. Place the briquettes in a pile, light, and allow them to burn about 15 minutes before spreading them evenly over the pit floor.

Bone Side Down

Lay the chicken on the grill, bone side down. Turn the chicken every three or four minutes to avoid blistering. Each time the chicken is turned baste it with a barbecue sauce, made of a half pint water, one pint vinegar, half pound butter and one ounce salt. This is enough for ten halves of chicken, each half weighing about one pound.

It will require from an hour to an hour and a quarter to thoroughly cook the chicken. An easy way to tell if the chicken is done is to grasp the side of chicken by the thigh and then with the other hand twist the end of the leg. If the bones part easily at the joint, the chicken is done.

With larger halves it might also be well to twist the wing to see if the bones part easily.

Chicken can be kept warm until serving time by placing it in a covered pan.

Hedges Are Very Popular

FLOWERING hedges are becoming more popular each year with spiraes, deutzias, forsythias, and Regel's Privet as examples.

For a formal hedge prune the plants in three periods of the year; Memorial Day, Fourth of July, and Labor Day.

Snap Beans Good Crop For Garden

SNAP beans are a good crop for a small vegetable garden because they mature quickly and produce good yields in a small area.

Not all snap bean varieties freeze well, so if you plan to freeze snap beans, plant suitable varieties, such as Stringless Green Pod, Top Crop, or Tendergreen.

Good non-freezing varieties are Contender and Stringless Black Valentine. Tendercrop is a new variety developed by the U. S. D. A. Varieties of wax or yellow-podded beans worth trying are Kinghorn Wax, Cherokee Wax, and Sure Crop Wax.

Other Suggestions

Don't plant snap beans until frost danger is nearly past.

Plant the seed just deep enough to get it in contact with moist soil, generally about one inch deep. Furrows can be made and seed covered shallow. Space the seed one and one-half to two inches apart in the row. Make rows two to two and one-half feet apart.

Apply a fertilizer such as 5-sandy soils) at a rate of two to 10-5, 5-10-10 or 8-16-16 (for two and one-half pounds per 100 square feet. Apply half the fertilizer before plowing and work the rest in later. Some can be applied in bands at planting time.

Soon after plants appear above ground, begin a thorough insect control program. Do not handle plants when wet as this favors the spread of disease.

Snap beans mature in 48 to 60 days, depending upon variety and weather conditions. About seven to 10 days will elapse between bloom and harvest.

Protect Lawns From Leaf Spot

KENTUCKY Bluegrass leaf spot (Melting Out) has caused yellowing of many lawns during the recent wet weather.

This fungus disease is most severe where the grass has been clipped less than two inches.

Satsifactory spraying fungicides are captan, applied at 6 ounces per 1000 square feet, and zineb, used at 2 ounces per 100 square feet.

SWEET PEAS which have been planted in March can be thinned to eight inches apart. Be sure to train young growths on a trellis or arbor. Use small strips of cloth in tying the stems to keep from injuring stems.

CLUB SUZANNE has the fantastic carnival activities of Mardi-Gras on Wednesday. A most famous television personality will entertain—Come up and see. The staff here has gone through the meticulous task of scheduling a programme of entertainment that resembles a Saturday night montage of hundreds of marquee lights on Times Square. The entire cordon is under the direction of Gotham City's famed Ravell. A complete revamping process has been undertaken. Mr. Banjo still is strumming although the rest is utterly new and different every evening. Bob Newman and his selected orchestra weaves fine music in the popular or continental fashion. The appointments of this favorite night haunt are romantic and exciting. People are saying, "You haven't Been until you've been at the Club Suzanne at Mt. Thursday becomes rustic with a country dance. Friday is reserved for Professional entertainment, Saturday afternoon there is a Jazz Session from 3 to 5, while in the evening entertainment returns. A Sophie Tucker type femme called Billie Collins warbles fine lyrics to the accompaniment of Ferdi Birtocchi's orchestra. Artiste Baz is on hand for caricatures at the bar which are mounted on the walls for viewing and give the Parisian Cafe a "Sardi" effect. Open to the public. On top of Mt. Pocono on Route 611. Castro Weighs Longer Vacations

HAVANA (AP) — Prime Minister Fidel Castro said yesterday his regime may order longer paid vacations for Cuban workers in an effort to create more jobs and solve the island's mammoth unemployment problem.

He declared the revolutionary government would not be satisfied with the Cuban economy "until every family and every citizen has within reach what was yesterday the privilege of a few."

In a two-hour speech to the commerce workers union, the bearded Prime Minister said a plan is under study that would give all workers 20 days' paid vacation every seven months.

Reinforce Garrisons

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—The Chinese Communists have reinforced their garrisons opposite Formosa in the past three days with tank units, the English-language China Ntws said yesterday.

Soviet Union Attacks Rocky

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet Union yesterday broadened its steady attacks on American political leaders to include New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The newspaper Soviet Fleet charged the Republican governor has joined "other ringleaders of monopolies and highly placed political figures in advocating more spending for military adventures."

The statement apparently was based on a Tass dispatch Saturday which said Rockefeller had urged increased government spending.

Tax On Gift Stocks

By William A. Doyle

Q. I was very interested in the column in which you explained that, when a person receives stocks as a gift and later sells those stocks, he must pay a Federal capital-gains tax on his profit. You explained that the profit must be figured as the difference between the price the stocks were originally purchased at (by the donor) and the price they are finally sold at. You also explained that the "cost basis" for Federal tax purposes is increased by any Federal gift tax that might have been paid at the time of the gift.

I am interested in the reverse situation. My uncle bought some stock at $50 a share. He gave it to me some years ago. The stock now has a market value of $30 a share. If I sell it at $30 a share, can I declare a loss (for Federal tax purposes) of $20 a share.

William A. Doyle

A. I don't know — because you left out one important point. What was the market value of the stock at the time of the gift?

This is where the Revenue Code throws a curve ball. Maybe it would be better described as a "duster" — a "keep the batter honest" pitch.

When you want to establish a tax loss on securities recieved as a gift, the tax-cost basis is supposed to be figured as either the donor's basis (the original cost) or the market value at the date of the gift — whichever is lower.

So, if the stock had a market value of $40 a share at the time it was given to you, you are only supposed to take a tax loss of $10 a share if you sell it at $30 a share.

This may seem to be a low blow. But think it through. It prevents a lot of gift-giving for shady tax advantages.

Q. In simple words, what is an annuity?

A. It's a contract that you enter into with an insurance company. You pay in a sum of money and the insurance company pays you a fixed amount of money—usually at monthly intervals.

Q. Does an annuity pay interest?

A. Yes. Part of the money you recieve in each payment from the insurance company is interest on the money you have paid in. Part of each payment is in the form of a return of principal your own money being returned to you.

Q. If I have an annuity, what happens to the money left in it when I die?

A That depends on what kind of an annuity you have. If it's a refund type of annuity, the balance goes to your estate. If it's the non-refund type, the balance stays with the insurance company.

Q. Do I buy an annuity from a brokerage firm, as I do stocks?

A. You arrange for an annuity through an insurance broker or agent. There are many types of annuities. Before you make a move, be sure you have them explained to you in detail. The most recent type coming up (it's already in operation in some areas) is the "variable" annuity. In that type, the money paid in is invested in stocks and the payments vary in line with the dividends paid by the stocks.

(Mr. Doyle will answer only representative letters of general interest in his column. He cannot answer phone queries.)
